Happy Holidays

Well that half term flew by... Thankfully we have had much more stability this half term and there have been so many more opportunities to enrich our curriculum with visits out of school and visitors to school as well. We are all looking forward to the break and hope that you have a happy family time together. Thank you all for your support of the school this term. It was lovely to see so many familiar faces and lots of new ones too, during parents evening this week. Teachers all commented on how wonderful it was to be able to welcome parents back into school.

Wall Art

Our new wall art is very popular with children and visitors so for any of you who didn't get to use the stairwell – here are a few images of our new look school...

Staff Changes

As many of you will know Mrs Adams has been off work since Christmas for personal reasons. During this time she has decided that time has come for a change in direction. "Mrs A" has worked at Rendlesham for 8 years and during her time has supported countless children. In the last few years she has trained as a Trauma informed practitioner and her skills have supported many children in times of crisis as well as emotional lows. I know that she has made a huge difference to children's self belief and confidence and I am sure you will all join us in wishing her the very best in her new endeavours. Thankfully she has volunteered to support our community Library so we will see her from time to time, but we will all miss her presence in school.

After Easter Miss Shipp will be reducing her days in school, therefore our Mayans class will be taught by Mrs Maghoo every Wednesday. Mrs Maghoo is well known by the children and will liaise closely with Miss Shipp to ensure that learning continues smoothly.

Holiday Club

Our Holiday club will be open on 14th and 21st April – please book via our website if you would like a place.
